

Figure 1: A 3D scatter plot showing data points in a 3D space. The points are colored based on a third variable, ranging from blue (low) to red (high). The plot shows a dense cluster of points forming a curved surface, with a few outliers.